The National School Chaplaincy Programme is a product and initiative of :

Reaching a Generation's mission is to influence the influencers in the lives of children, youth, and families through creative products, programmes and the constant development of leaders. It is firmly established in our hearts that all our efforts and investments are part of a movement; a movement to see lives touched with a message of true hope.
Reaching a Generation partners with companies, communities, churches, schools, hospitals and other Non Governmental Organizations for the purpose of positively effecting the lives and destinies of the children of South and Southern Africa and giving a message that there is hope regardless of the huge challenges facing our world today.

National School Chaplaincy Programme

A movement has begun in this nation where educators are much more involved in real life issues in their learners lives and where they are afforded the chance to stand as chaplains in their schools.

Chaplain: a person chosen to conduct moral leadership at a meeting / club in a school a movement has begun ...

Committed to see
CHANGE!

This is not just a job for you, it's a calling.
You pour your heart into your lessons.
You shape the future of our children.

YES ...!

You want to make a difference in the lives of children and youth.

*Our desire is to build a structure from which we can help educators build capacity, receive resources and be part of a united team working together to help shape individuals who will become the next leaders of this nation and church.

The National School Chaplaincy Programme offers:

- A national network of like-minded educators.
- Resources to assist you in shaping young lives.
- A conveniently flexible programme to fit around your schedule - each phase is done via correspondence (approx. six months per phase).
- For a low cost per phase, you get quality materials for you and your students.
- A programme designed to capacitate educators to deal with learner issues and provide access to resources to assist you in shaping young lives.

PERSONAL CHARACTER of a CHAPLAIN:

- Outspoken transparent Christian Educators;
- Able to foster Christian values and relationships;
- Committed to live a life as an example to their communities and other Educators;

Chaplaincy Activities:

- Establish a well-rounded bi-weekly discipleship programme in your school with actively involved students.
- Involving these students in set activities throughout the year as to impact their lives and the lives of people they interact with.
- Advocate to seeing God's Kingdom established within your area of influence and beyond.
- Commit to give time to programmes and projects that help to establish the values agreed upon by all of us.
- Have a minimum requirement of a weekly session where the educators and learners meet and grow together.
- You and other educators have authority to speak into the lives of children and youth. The National School Chaplaincy Programme commits to empower you, so that you may be better equipped to lay the life giving foundation of the word of God in the lives of children and youth.

Upon joining the National School Chaplaincy Programme, you will be taken through the following phases on your growth path as a chaplain:

Joyce Meyer Ministries and their partners in South Africa desire to work with Educators who have a passion for the lost, hurting and needy... Educators who will lay down their lives so that they can shape the lives of the leaders of this nation. Joyce Meyer supports the National School Chaplaincy Programme and she invites all educators to start making a lasting difference in the lives of children and youth.

"Dare yourself each day to be a blessing to someone"

- Joyce Meyer
